

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus—where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus—where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus—where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus—where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus—where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus—where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalms 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus— where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.

Call To Worship (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Pastor Ken

Leader: In the wilderness, Christ was tested—

People: and God's Word held him steady.

Leader: In our own lives, we carry burdens, temptations, and fear.

People: Yet God invites us to come clean, to be honest, to be healed.

Leader: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven," says the psalmist.

People: God is our hiding place; God surrounds us with steadfast love.

Leader: Lent is a journey—personal and communal— from what traps us to what frees us, from old patterns to new life.

People: We walk this road with Jesus, trusting grace to remake us.

Leader: So come: not pretending, not proving, not performing — but returning.

People: We come to worship the God who forgives, guides, and renews.

All: Let us worship God.

(PLEASE RISE IN BODY OR IN SPIRIT)

*Opening Hymn #281 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

Call to Confession

Pastor Ken

Lent invites us into a quieter, truer space—a kind of wilderness with Jesus—where we can notice what's really going on inside us.

Psalm 32 reminds us what a gift it is to bring our whole selves to God: the parts we're proud of, and the parts we'd rather not name. When we stop carrying everything alone, grace has room to breathe.

And in Matthew 4, when temptation presses in, Jesus meets it with trust in God's steady care. We come to that same God—patient, faithful, and kind.

So, with gentle honesty, and with hope for new life, let us pray our confession together.

Prayer of Confession

All: Merciful God, you invite us into truth, not to shame us, but to heal us. We confess that we look for life in what cannot satisfy — comfort, approval, control, and security. We test you instead of trusting you. We bow to lesser powers — success, anxiety, resentment, and fear — and our love grows small.

Forgive us, unburden us, and restore us. Lead us through this Lenten journey with Jesus and make us new for the joy of resurrection life.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Leader: Let us take a moment for silent confession and personal reflection.

Assurance of Pardon (Psalm 32; Matthew 4:1-11)

Leader: Hear the good news: "Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered... You are my hiding place; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with steadfast love."

In Jesus Christ, we are not condemned—we are forgiven, held, and led into new life. So receive God's mercy with gratitude, and walk forward in freedom.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be.

World without end, amen! Amen.

Prayer for Illumination

Leader: Holy God, as we open your Word, quiet the noise within us. In the wilderness of our lives, speak with clarity and grace. Uncover what we hide, strengthen what is weak, and lead us in the way of life.

By your Spirit, help us hear Jesus clearly, trust you deeply, and follow faithfully on this Lenten journey — until we are made new in the joy of resurrection.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Psalm 32 (Pew Bible Old Testament Pages #506-507)

Matthew 4:1-11 (Pew Bible New Testament Page #3)

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God. And we all say:

People: Thanks be to God.